THE PEYTON-CARTER MARRIAGE.

THE EVENT CELEBRATED AT SIX O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT.

The Beautiful Wedding Scene at the Old Mansion of Mrs. Robert Goodloe Lindsay.

At the stately old ante-bellum home of Mrs. Robert Goodloe Lindsay, on West Sycamore street, yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, occurred one of the most interesting events in the history of the social life of Greensboro, it being the occasion of the marriage of Miss Charlotte A. Peyton, granddaughter of Mrs. Lindsay, and Mr. Edgar R. Carter, well known and popular young society people. It was a "holly" wedding, appropriate to the festal Christmas season, and it is doubtful if any marriage in Greensboro was ever celebrated under more favorable auspices. Certainly no happier wedding party ever assembled in this city.

The spacious parlor in which the ceremony took place was tastily decorated with holly, mistletoe, ribbons, roses, et., and, under the soft glow of numerous red lamps, presented a most charming effect. The wedding party entered in the following manner: First came Miss Alice May Small and Miss Lizzie Leigh Dick, carrying the ribbon that formed the aisles. They were followed by the officiating minister, Rev. E. W. Smith, D. D., who entered through the west door of the parlor. Through the east door came Master David Schenck, Jr., the bride's manly little nephew, bearing the wedding ring on a silver tray. The groom and his best man, Mr. Julius W. Cone, entered through the west door, and were met by the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Sloan, of Reidsville, who came through the opposite door.

When the bridal party had entered the parlor, Rev. Dr. Smith took his station in front of the contracting couple, and, in a well modulated tone, pronounced the words of the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Presbyterian church which joined them together as husband and wife.

After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served in the dining room, which was decorated with a profusion of holly and roses, which served to set off the beauty of the lovely women and the gallant men. Myriads of red candles beautifully lighted the room.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter boarded the southbound fast mail for a visit to Atlanta, Chattanooga and Knoxville. They will return after an absence of two or three weeks and will beat home in the Southern Loan and Trust Company building, where they have taken rooms.

The members of the wedding party were, without exception, fashionably and becomingly attired. The bride's going-away gown was a lovely creation of blue cloth, the beauty of which was enhanced by a beautiful boquet of bride's roses which she carried. The maid of honor, the bride's cousin, was dressed in white organdy, with red trimmings, and carried red roses. The groom wore a fasionable traveling suit. The little ring-bearer was attired in white, with big red pon-pons on his slippers, and a red tie.

About sixty guests were present to witness the plighting of the troth between these two popular young people. Among the out-of-town visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Odell, of Concord; Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Watt, of Reidsville; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Merrimon, of Minneapolis, Minn; Messrs. Robert and John Tate, of Charlotte, and James Sloan, of Winston.

Greensboro society has no more popular members than Mr. and Mrs. Carter, and the match is considered a most suitable one in every respect. The groom is a young man of sound business training and fine judgment, and is regarded with the highest favor by all who know him. He is a native of Chattanooga, Tenn., and was an officer in a volunteer company from that city in the Spanish-American war, serving with distinction in Cuba. After the close of the war he came to Greensboro and engaged in business with the Simpson-Shields Shoe Company.

The bride is a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families in the Old North State, being descended from an ancestry noted for chivalry on the one side and beauty on the other. Since her debut into society she has been recognized as a reigning belle, and her reputation for beauty, graciousness of manner and loveliness of disposition has extended beyond State limits. She has been a leader in the social life of Greensboro and her home has always been famous for its open-handed hospitality.

Gay Young Robbers.

When the United States marshal returned from Charlotte last night he had three young prisoners, boys, about sixteen years old, who had been convicted of breaking into the postoffice at Bessimer City. Their names were Maness, Friday, and Queen. The latter was a gay youngster and apparently cared no more for his trouble than he would for a pic nic excursion. Judge Boyd sentenced two of them to twelve months, and the other to eighteen months each, to the reform school in the District of Columbia.

Celebrated Their Tin Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Al. Rankin, who live four miles north of town, celebrated their tin wedding yesterday. About forty of their friends were present, most of them having witnessed the ceremony that made the two man and wife. Several people from Greensboro were present.

The couple were the recipients of a number of handsome presents.

With the Odd Fellows.

At the regular weekly meeting of Buena Vista lodge No. 21, I. O. O. F., last night officers were nominated for the term embracing the first six months of 1901. The election will take place next Tuesday night.

Rev. H. K. Boyer Pounded.

The members of Centenary church surprised their new pastor, Rev. H. K. Boyer, last night by giving him an old time Methodist pounding. They brought substantial tokens of the love and esteem in which Mr. Boyer and his family are held, and altogether it was a most enjoyable occasion.

Everything's Fair in War.

Charlotte News.

Greensboro is exhausting every resource in her efforts to catch up with Charlotte. Seeing that the task was greater than she could accomplish she has gone to taking short cuts on us. The latest trick was attempted Saturday night when the pendulum was removed from the town clock. Relieved of this impediment the old clock got a regular Charlotte move on it, and consequently alarmed the people of Greensboro.

It struck every fifteen minutes. One man living near the court house, complained that he went to breakfast before he got out of bed, and the pace was too fast for him. The services of a jeweler were invoked at once, and Greensboro people gave up the hope of overtaking Charlotte this century at least.

Tarred and Feathered Wrong Man.

Walsunberg, Col., Dispatch, 17th.

White caps, organized here to hunt down and punish the men responsible for recent petty robberies, got hold of the wrong man on Friday night and maltreated a respectable negro. The man was seen at Picton working over the mine dump. He was seized by the members of the mob and despite his protestations and struggles was bound and carried to a hot tar kettle. His clothes were torn from his back and a coating of tar administered and then some feathers were applied.

"Now let's see who he is," said one of the members of the committee and they looked at the negro more closely. All knew the man as one of the most respectable in the camp and one that the company trusted implicitly.

The package that he was carrying was found to contain his own clothes. The man was then taken to a saloon and the committee proceeded to scrape off the tar as best they could. They took some skin off with it, and when they had finished the man was almost crazed with agony. He was then filled with liquor, some money was placed in his pocket and two men carried him home to his wife. They gave her some money to keep silent, and then they disappeared.

A SHOOTING NEAR STOKESDALE

TWO BROTHERS ATTACKED BY MEN ACTING AS OFFICERS.

Frank and Will Huffines the Unlucky Men—They Were Charged With Breaking Into a Bar at Kernersville—One Likely Dead—The Posse Ran.

News comes of a very disastrous occurrence at Stokesdale, this county. It is that Will and Frank Huffines, two young white men, were shot, and one of them probably killed, in their father's house, by a posse of men, who were deputized officers, or claimed to be deputized officers. The crowd, part of them from Kernersville, and part picked up in the neighborhood, had a warrant for the arrest of the two men charging them with having broken into a barroom in Kernersville. Julian Money had the warrant and was accompanied by some fifteen men. The boys were found in their father's house. One of them was caught and handcuffed before the warrant was read, it is said.

The other one, Will Huffines, the report says, resisted and tried to shoot, whereupon both nhe men were shot by the crowd. It is reported that Dr. Hilton examined the men and said that Will could not live till tonight, but that the other might pull through.

After the shooting the crowd immediately disappeared and left the handcuffs on Frank Huffines. They remain on him now as he lies in bed, as the crow carried off the key and there is no way to unlock them. As reported, the affair is very ugly.

Holiday at the Normal—Director's Meeting.

The Normal and Industrial College Christmas holiday will begin Friday and continue till January the first. Work will be resumed with the first day of the new year and new century.

The board of directors of the College will meet there tomorrow in the regular semi-annual meeting. Some of the members have already arrived in the city.

It gives The Telegram real pleasure to commend the Bostonia Sextette Club, which appears at the Normal tomorrow night. It will be a rare opportunity to those who enjoy first-class entertainments.

A Souvenir.

Judge Jas. E. Boyd and the court officers returned last night from Charlotte, where court has been in session. While in Charlotte, Judge Boyd was presented with a copy of the letter sent last May to President McKinley asking him to attend the 20th of May celebration. The letter is printed on a fine piece of North Carolina made cotton goods, and is framed, signed by the mayor and a large number of citizens. Judge Boyd went with the committee, who called upon the President and got his consent to attend the celebration if possible.

Burglars Torture a Woman.

Sharon, Pa., Dispatch, 17th.

Three masked burglars visited the home of Mrs. John Bell, a widow living near Coaltown, last night and attempted to force her to open a safe in the house. Mrs. Bell was alone with her grand-daughter, Miss Sargent. The burglars got in by smashing an outside door. Mrs. Bell told the men that she could not open the safe, as she did not know the combination.

The robbers then twisted her arms, threatened to burn her feet and otherwise torture her. They carried her to the safe, got a can of oil and threatened to pour it over her and touch a match. Then they became convinced that the woman did not know the combination and left after taking $8 and all the jewelry they could find.

Happy in the Idea.

Biblical Recorder.

In view of the fact that our free schools will require every cent of money the State can spare, and in view of the fact that our institutions for the insane are in need of larger provisions, we think a movement to endow our State institutions of higher education is wise and timely. President McIver is happy in the idea and the plan of finding one thousand men in North Carolina who will give $100 each to provide a loan fund for the State Normal.

MARRIAGE THIS EVENING.

Seven O'clock Will be the Hour When Mr. Carr and Miss Wood are Made One.

Miss Callie Wood and Mr. Ernest Carr will be married tonight at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, Mr. T. J. Wood, in Trinity. Rev. J. M. Price, pastor of the charge, will perform the ceremony. It will be a very quiet affair, only the relatives of the bride and groom being present.

Miss Wood is a niece of Mrs. J. R. Pearce of this city, and has many friends here who wish for her unbounded happiness.

Mr. Carr is manager of the insurance office of O. W. Carr & Son, and though a native of Trinity, has made Greensboro his home for several years, where he has a host of friends who offer congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr will be given a reception at their future home on Mendenhall street tonight by Dr. and Mrs. Dred Peacock and Mrs. Lula Carr.

Prof. O. W. Carr, father of the groom, went to Trinity this morning to attend the marriage.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

George Clarke and His Superb Company in "When We Were Twenty-One."

A Norfolk contemporary has this to say of this attraction:

"The management of the company which produced "When we were Twenty-one' at the Academy last evening does not misrepresent the facts when he terms it a company of artists, for every one of the score of members fully deserve the term. George Clarke has a national reputation. His support are earning theirs, for their work is admirable. The play is full of bright sayings, vivacious dialogues, smart speeches and dramatic situations that keep the audience's attention riveted upon the stage. There is no pretense to stage settings. With performers possessing the histrionic talent that George Clarke and his company do, scenery is but a burden and obstacle in their way. It is the opinion of many of the most critical of the cultured audienced who witnessed this great performance that Miss Estelle Carter carried off the laurels by her superb rendition of the character of Phillis Ericson, which is by no means a light task. George Clarke, O. B. Thayer and H. D. Hawley, the Imp., acquitted themselves well."

Senators Decide on Limit of War Tax Reduction.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Thirty millions is the limit of reduction to be made in war taxes. That is the fiat of the senators in charge of the revenue bill passed last week in the House. Senators Aldrich and Allison, after a conference with Secretary Gage, are convinced that a greater reduction will be unwise. The plan which is expected to be adopted in the senate is to accept the House bill as it stands with the exception of restoring the tax on bank checks.

Searching for Cause of Cadet Booz's Death.

By Wire to The Telegram.

West Point, Dec. 19.—The army court convened this morning, all members being present. First and second classes will be summoned to testify. Inquiry will probably extend until the end of the week. This morning a score of members of the second class who were plebes with Booz summoned early to be called upon without delay.

Cadet Linton today denied to the court of inquiry that cadet Booz was hazed. He admitted though that hazing was carried on. Col. Hein testified that there were positive orders against "Bracing" or any form of hazing.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Chief Police Sylvester is informed of an alleged plot to kill President McKinley, Vice-president Roosevelt, Senators Hanna and Depew. Senator Hanna laughs at it. The police however are watching the reputed conspirators. Two men informed the authorities. But as one of them joined the conspirators to protect him, the names will be withheld.

WORTH WILL CASE FINISHED

THE JURY GIVES A VERDICT FOR THE PROPOUNDERS.

Case in the Hands of Jury About Four Hours—An Exceedingly Interesting Trial—Appeal Will Probably be Taken.

The suit over the will of Dr. J. M. Worth, which has been going on for the past week and a half at Asheboro, and which has attracted attention all over the State, was finished at twelve o'clock last night, when the jury brought in, after an absence of four hours, a verdict in favor of the propounders of the will which it was sought to break.

The will gave the bulk of Dr. Worth's estate, valued at $225,000 to his daughter, Mrs. A. C. McAlister and her children, Mrs. Allie H. Worth, the widow of Dr. Worth's son, T. C. Worth, and her children, and Hal M. Worth.

Mr. R. W. Bingham and his two sisters, one of Louisville, and one of Asheville, and Mrs. D. H. Collins, of Greensboro, were the caveators All of these are grandchildren. The three former receive under the will $2,500 each; Mrs. Collins' mother and her children get $10,000.

The will was defended by Messrs. Hal M. Worth, A. W., J. C., and C. McAlister, who are the propounders and executors. The plaintiffs alleged that when the will was made Dr. Worth was not fully responsible and was subject to undue influence. They relied upon their own testimony and that of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Bradshaw, of Greensboro. The defense introduced many witnesses who had had business relations with the deceased, just before his death, who testified to his mental vigor.

Judge Bryan's charge was highly spoken of. The fight was a big one, some of the best talent in the State being engaged, as before stated in The Telegram. The Greensboro attorneys were W. P. Bynum, Jr., for the plaintiffs and Col. James T. Morehead for the defense. The trial passed off amicably and the best feeling prevailed.

Negro Drops Dead.

William Arbor, a negro who did odd jobs around town, was found dead about noon at Mrs. W. L. Trotter's where he was engaged in sawing wood. The liitle son of Mr. Whitt East who lives opposite Mrs. Trotter's saw the darkey and in telling about it, said, "He sat down and presently he lay down and went to sleep." Coroner Turner is in the country and it is not yet known whether an inquiry will be necessary or not.

The Bostonia Sextette Club.

THE USE OF KNOCK-OUT DROPS

ANOTHER VICTIM FOLLOWS THE METHODS OF PATTERSON MURDER.

Another Young Woman Comes to Her Death by This Nefarious Method—More High Social Parties Involved.

Utica, Dec. 17.—All Herkimer county is aroused over a crime which culminated this afternoon in the death in Little Falls of Miss Margaret Jennings, the victim of knock-out drops. The case in many respects similar to the Jennie Bosschieter case of Paterson, N. J., and before the official investigation has been completed it promises to involve persons standing high in the social set of Herkimer county.

Up to Dec. 5 Miss Jennings had lived with her niece, Miss Nellie Franks, at 188 Whitesboro street, this city. She left on that date, going to Herkimer, and a few days ago she was found in the Nelson House in that village. The proprietor thought she was intoxicated and she was put to bed. As she failed to come to her senses within a reasonable time it dawned upon the landlord that probably the woman was a victim of some drug and a physician was summoned. The doctor said that the condition of the woman was not serious, and it was decided to remove her to the County House.

After she had been there a few days her brother, Michael Jennings, was notified and he went to the County House, where he found his sister in a critical condition. At first she failed to recognize her brother and raved constantly and mumbled incoherently. Her condition was so serious that it was thought inadvisable to remove her to her brother's home in Little Falls until yesterday, when the doctors agreed that she could be taken there without jeopardizing her life.

Dr. A. B. Santry was called upon her arrival there. After a thorough examination the doctor expressed alarm at the seriousness of the woman's condition and it was thought advisable to call in Coroner Eveleth, so that her ante-mortem statement could be taken. Miss Jennings talked disjointedly, but sufficient was gleaned from what she said to warrant the statement that she was the victim of knock-out drops.

She said that on Dec. 7 she fell in with some young men in Herkimer, who took her to "Wood's Place." It is thought that the Wood referred to is the keeper of a saloon and resort near the freight house in Herkimer. Wood manifested a great interest in getting the woman out of the way, and he secured the order from the Herkimer poormaster to have her put in the County House at Middleville. Wood accompanied the woman to that institution. The girl told of several resorts into which she was dragged by her male companions. She also told of drinking something from a bowl and of being escorted to the Nelson House by Wood.

The girl's arms are black and blue and her limbs were burned to a blister by hot water being applied to revive her. There are also many marks made by the application of an electric battery, evidently brought into play by her companions in the hope that this heroic treatment would bring her to her senses.

Miss Jennings died in Little Falls late this afternoon in frightful agony. She raved incessantly of her experience on the occasion of her receiving the fatal potion.

The victim's brother, and, in fact, the whole community, demand that those implicated in the brutal affair be punished to the fullest extent of the law. The facts will be laid before the grand jury at Herkimer within a few days and some startling revelations, equalling in moral depravity the circumstances surrounding the murder of Jennie Bosschieter, may be expected.

On the heels of the death of Margaret Jennings comes the assertion of a Little Falls woman that on a recent visit to Herkimer she was inveigled into a resort, where she was drugged and outraged. Her testimony will undoubtedly play a part in the official investigation of the Jennings girl's death will be started at once.

Col. Bryan's Newspaper and It's Ads.

New York Sun.

We wish Col. Bryan good luck in his enterprise. He will not, we presume, take advertisements from corporations unless they are corporations in which true Bryanites such as Col. is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking spot, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.

SANTA CLAUS LETTERS

By SHAWEN.

The hundreds of letters written by the children to Santa Claus, which our two excellent daily papers are publishing, are fully entitled to the extra space allowed them. There is no household from which one of the childish missives comes but waits expectant for the paper containing in enduring form, the first and most patriotic expression, to go beyond the fireside, of the little ones' anticipation of the chiefest season of the year.

Scores of parents will not only share with the young writers the gladness of the moment at seeing their wishes and their names in print, but will also rejoice over the ardent expectations which they themselves are to consummate by "delivering the goods." Further than this, the papers will be carefully put away, the particular letter being marked alike with ink and joyful tears, as a souvenir of the day when, for that time at least, happiness and hope pervaded every nook and corner of the home.

Long in the after years when age shall have bent the form, and care furrowed the brow, and the devious journey wearied the feet, of the fathers and mothers now in the freshness or the fullness of parental joy, these same letters will have a ten-fold value. To some, in the stillness of the night, when the season has returned again to find the little writer of today absent from the fireside, grown now, with a home and children of its own, the indistinct and time-worn paper as it is taken with reverent hands from its accsutomed place in the old trunk or some locked and guarded drawer, will bring back memories that become as vivid as the realties they recall, mingled with the proud contemplation of the happiness aud success which has attended the erstwhile children who prattled in their laps.

To others, in the days to come, these letters will be more precious still, for they will bring back the fair features, the frail form, of a little sufferer, who in the vanished years was taken from them to dwell in paradise. The old loneliness of the home still wearily confronts them, but they are drawing near, now, to that other home, not made with hands, where the baby of their early love is to be restored to them unafraid of pain. And the tears that fall again upon the faded page have less of sorrow and more of the sweetness of the patience which an unshaken faith provides.

To others still, alas! the printed scroll recalls the years of innocence, now stained with sin. Yet as the bitter tears descend upon the self-same lines where pride and hope had baptized the childish letter long ago, they see again the loveliness of old, and cannot deem their boy, their girl, as bad as the censure of the world declares.

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac.
Grissom & Fordham.

When you need a soothing and healing antiseptic application for any purpose, use the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and skin diseases. It heals sores without leaving a scar. Beware of imitations. Howard Gardner.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 19.

The contention now going on before the Supreme Court of the United States cannot be decided otherwise than in favor of the government's contention without the gravest consequences. To decide that "the constitution follows the flag" in these cases will mean the total undoing of all our work in the Philippines and Porto Rico. It is difficult for the uninitiated to see how any decision can be arrived at that will square with common sense, and at the same time say that we must admit to citizenship the people of any island that the chances of war may put into our possession. We don't know what the legal precedents are, but we know that Attorney General Griggs has the common sense end of the proposition.

The Times is the second Raleigh paper that has challenged a statement of The Landmark recently and it is the second Raleigh paper that will take water on account thereof.—Statesville Landmark.

While it is none of our business, in pure friendship, we admonish our newspaper friends in Raleigh to be careful how they rush to the defense of the politicians lest they have to take a whole Johnstown flood.

A Greensboro gentleman yesterday expressed the opinion that the demand for more courts would be met by the legislature with the abolition of the criminal districts and the erection of two more superior court districts, making fourteen in all, and the complete separation of the criminal and civil terms. He thought that this would give ample facilities. The Superior court system seems to be the most satisfactory yet devised.

Raleigh is in the midst of a police census. Charlotte will also have some figures along this line within the next few days. Greensboro seems to be perfectly satisfied with Uncle Sam's figures.—Charlotte News.

Yes. An increase of 202 per cent. and an actual increase greater than any other town in the State is enough for us. We never were greedy.

While our sister village of Charlotte is crowing over what she has, we'd like to know what she has to offset Greensboro's curiosity in the shape of the statue of liberty once belonging to Mr. Aguinaldo Y' Famy? Now toe the mark.

If the California crowd did not make the amend honorable to the negro whom they tarred and feathered by mistake, they did their best towards it. They cleaned off the tar so well that even the skin went with it.

The Elks of Charlotte are preparing to give a Christmas dinner to 150 children who would not otherwise enjoy a real Christmas dinner. Honor to the Elks.

We congratulate Senator Hanna on laughing at the latest of the million and a half of alleged plots to kill the President and a squad of Senators.

What Shawen, our excellent contributor, lacks of being a poet is not enough to talk about.

We await Mr. Bryan's announcement that he is willing to receive wood on subscription.

The District Court grand jury yesterday found a true bill against Mr. F. W. Moody, of Charlotte, on the charge that, as registrar in precinct No. 2, in Ward 1, in that city, he refused to permit the registration of persons prior to the August and November elections.

Without Delay.

News and Observer.

A movement is on foot, says the Greensboro Telegram, to erect a colonial monument at Guilford Battle Ground to cost $1,000. Already $575 has been subscribed, $150 by "Unknown Subscriber;" $100 by General Julian S. Carr; $50 each by Neill Ellington and J. A. Odell, and $25 by R. F. Dalton. This is a good beginning for a patriotic cause, and we hope the remainder of the sum needed will be subscribed without delay.

Kruger Stops a Runaway Team.

The Hague Dispatch, 17th.

While ex-President Kruger was out driving in the suburbs last Wednesday his horses became frightened at an automobile and ran away. One of Mr. Kruger's secretaries, who was the only other occupant of the carriage, jumped out. The old Boer President stood up in the carriage and reaching past the driver, seized the reins and soon pulled up the horses. He said to his secretary when the latter rejoined him: "Next time sit where you are and trust in God."

J. W. Scott & Company say they don't believe Greensboro ever saw such an array of fine candies at popular prices. If you have any doubts, call and satisfy yourself, one way or the other.

"When we were twenty-one," is the head on an ad in today's Telegram by Merritt Brower & Company, in which they talk about Strauss Bros.' high art clothing. It will be their pleasure to show you some of the prettiest suits of the season.

See announcement of Mrs. N. C. Weatherly.

Mrs. Francis Harper, a widow 70 years of age, met with a horrible death at her home in Newbern Monday afternoon. While warming herself before the fireplace her clothing became ignited and she was fearfully burned, dying within a few minutes in great agony.

Relatively to its population, Hartford, Conn., is the richest city in the union.

The cost of carrying a pair of shoes from New York to London by English steamers and railways combined is less than the cost of transit by rail from Liverpool to London.

At present the greatest distance over which electrical power is being transmitted by wire is 85 miles, being carried from a waterfall at Redlands, Cal., to the city of Los Angeles to run a street railway, to light the city and to furnish power for several municipal undertakings. The plant was set up in 1897. It has a capacity of 400 horse power and 33,000 volts.

The cutters of the great glove houses at Brussels and in France earn even higher wages than the cutters of the most fashionable tailors in London and New York. So difficult is this art of cutting gloves that most of the principal cutters are known to the trade by name and by fame, and the peculiar knives which they use in the business are so highly prized that they are handed down from generation to generation as heirlooms.

Some wrought-iron girders in a building in Chicago had to be cut during repairs to make room for a steel column, and it was decided to use electricity instead of the old method of sawing. The girders to be cut were six in number and 14 inches deep, with a one-inch web. To accomplish the work it was necessary to melt about 225 holes in the girders, and the actual time spent in cutting all was three and one-half hours.

Tree planting in the streets is to be encouraged in Baltimore. The municipal board of estimates has determined to abandon the absurd charge of 25 cents for the privilege of planting trees along the public streets, and to encourage the improvement by growing the trees, presenting them free of cost to those desiring a tree before their home, planting them and keeping them trimmed and in order. This plan has worked successfully in Boston.

BABY FOODS

It is clear that doctors and mothers think more of special foods than they used to.

The reasons are: (1) both mothers and babies live less naturally than they used to; (2) mother's milk is not so plenty, and not so good, as it used to be; (3) Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil is mother food as well as baby food—enables the mother to feed her baby naturally.

We'll send you a little to try if you like.
SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Kell, of 707 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "A few months ago I had an attack of Sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was an unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington, who is also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well. After having it filled twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I declined to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) recommended for Rheumatism, I decided, almost in despair however, to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all, S. S. S. having cured me sound and well. All the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health.

SSS the great vegetable purifier and tonic, is the ideal remedy in all rheumatic troubles. There are no opiates or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to ruinous habits.

We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism which every sufferer from this painful disease should read. It is the most complete and interesting book of the kind in existence. It will be sent free to any one desiring it. Write our physicians fully and freely about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

Correspondence of The Telegram.

High Point, Dec. 19.—"Model Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. H C. Kearns, was the scene of a notable event last evening at 7 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Cora, was united in marriage to Mr. L. M. H. Reynolds, of Greensboro. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. E. Parker, of Stokesdale, a brother-in-law of the bride, assisted by Rev. J. E. Gay, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at this place. There were no attendants. The immediate family and a number of invited friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed in the parlor of the residence.

After the ceremony and congratulations the guests were invited into the dining room where an elegant supper was served.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome, useful and costly presents.

The bridal couple took the 9:20 train here for Greensboro. Several friends and members of the family accompanied them to the station.

Mrs. Mary E. Cartland, State President of the W. C. T. U., will meet with the North Greensboro Union Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and and give notes from the National Convention recently held in Washington. All ladies interested in this work are cordially invited.

Prof. L. W. Crawford, Jr., of Rutherford College, will address the Epworth League of West Market Street church on next Monday evening, December 24th, at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "Witnesses to Immortality in Literature." The name of the speaker insures that the talk will be interesting. An invitation is extended to all to be present.

Hunter Holds to Life Until His Wife Comes to Camp.

Receives Mortal Wound While Hunting Deer, But Never Loses Control of Himself—Rides Mile Back to Camp.

The recent death of J. H. Benham, of California, illustrates the wonderful nerve of strong men under the most adverse conditions. Benham and three companions had gone into the mountains for a day's hunting. They had climbed mountains and crossed canyons and finally made their camp on Eel river. On Monday afternoon, while high up a mountain, Benham's hounds started a fine buck. The hunter braced himself against a bush and was about to fire at the deer when the bush gave way and allowed him to slide down the incline about 120 yards. In falling Benham's rifle was discharged, the ball passing into his abdomen and coming out at his right shoulder. Wounded though he was he managed to crawl back up the incline where he shouted for help.

No one heard his cries, and he then discharged his rifle till the magazine was empty. One of his companions came to his assistance. The wounded man requested his friend to send for his wife, realizing all the time that his wound was fatal. The friend went back to camp and secured three mules, with which he returned to the scene of the tragedy.

Without help of any sort Benham rode one of the mules back to camp, a distance of half a mile. Another of the party then started for the nearest town for medical help and to telephone for Mrs. Benham. The messenger traveled in an hour and twenty minutes a trail which had taken the hunters seven hours to travel when they were on their way to their camp. A physician and Mrs. Benham reached the camp at three o'clock in the morning, but nothing could be done for the dying man. At ten o'clock that morning the party started for home, 18 miles away. The wounded man was carried on a litter the entire distance, the members of the party taking turns at carrying it.

They arrived at home at ten o'clock at night, the wounded man retaining consciousness throughout the long journey. He knew that his death was a question of only a few hours, but he never lost his courage. He died at five o'clock the next morning.

A BUSINESSLIKE MAMMA.

Presents Her Two Daughters to Wife-Seeking Bachelor and Gives Him His Pick.

Having advertised in a paper for a wife, Perkins Williams sat down to receive proposals. Mr. Williams is a prosperous farmer and lives two miles south of Cortland, N. Y. When he had received 100 favorable communications he selected the choicest few and opened negotiations. None had been finally closed when an elderly woman and two younger ones drove up to Mr. Williams' front door and inquired for him.

The elderly woman announced that she had come on a business matter and would stay to dinner. Mr. Williams entertained his guests sumptuously. When it was over the elderly woman pushed back her chair and, waving her hand toward the two girls, said, briskly:

"Now, Mr. Williams, I have read your advertisement. You seem very comfortable here. These two girls are my daughters, Ethel and Marion Bodkin. They are willing to marry. Take your pick."

Mr. Williams looked them over, including Mrs. Bodkin, and decided on Ethel. The wedding day was set for Thanksgiving, and the Bodkin family drove back to their home where Perkins Williams will present himself for his bride on the day appointed.

POPULARITY OF GOLF GROWS.

The popularity of gold in England grows apace. Wherever a bit of ground at all suitable for the sport is found there the golfer is sure to be seen. This was well demonstrated the other day when Mr. Balfour opened the Hawksworth Golf clubhouse. Small as the village is, that golf house cost the large sum of $10,000.

Apropos of this, people have just been reading a little book called "The Prolongation of Life," by Dr. R. E. Dudgeon, written chiefly for those who have had to abandon their accustomed business or occupation and begin as it were a new mode of life, of which they have had no previous experience.

In a chapter on exercise Dr. Dudgeon, who exultantly declares that Scotland never gave the world a more valuable gift than golf, describes the national game and its health-giving qualities with enthusiasm.

RHEUMATISM—CATARRH—DISEASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucuous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure ond so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are dainty little pills, but they never fail to cleanse the liver, remove obstructions and invigorate the system. Howard Gardner.

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. For Our Lady Readers

8162—Ladies' Fancy Waist.
32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inch bust.

LADIES FANCY WAIST NO 8162.

Some of the bodices for dinner and reception gowns are made of velvet and lace combined. The accompanying illustration shows a waist of velvet and heavy lace, mounted on a glove-fitting lining, the seams and darts of which are featherboned.

The backs and side backs are smoothly covered with velvet, and a plain under-arm gore completes the close adjustment.

The plain lace collar is finished with a velvet band. Transparent, one-piece sleeves fit the arm closely from shoulder to elbow, flaring widely at the lower edge, where they are gathered and arranged on a narrow velvet wrist-band.

This mode is appropriate for silk, velvet, satin, or panne with applique, Persian trimmings, jetted net or all-over embroidered silk for decoration.

To make the waist in medium size will require two-yards of thirty-six in all over lace for fronts and sleeves and one and one-half yards of twenty-two inch velvet. The pattern, No. 8162, is cut in sizes for a 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inch bust measure.

IN WOMAN'S REALM.

MODISH ACCESSORIES.

Gold and silver cords and very narrow gimps are insured fashionable favors for the winter. The new trimmings of this description are wholly unlike the garish devices formerly so popular among prevailing millinery styles, many of the new designs being cleverly intermixed wtih bits of color. These decorations will be sparingly used by fastidious women, who have objected to masses of metal as too showy and decided. The imported gold and silver hat garnitures are rich, delicate and artistic.

Stylish young women are again wearing with their shirtwaist of soft blue silk, satin or cloth in cream, white, old-rose, various shades of red and other fashionable colors, the folded stock of our Revolutionary ancestors seen in minatures and large portraits. The style is repeated not quite litterally but effectvely in black satin or velvet to wear with every sort of waist. Also in black and white effects and in gay color melanges, with gray, tan, fawn-color and similar waists of natural tone. The ends sre in scarf form carried twice around the neck and tied in a bow in front above the high stock which is stiff enough to keep the folds of the scarf in place.

A modish little jacket used with many of the practical tailor costumes has rather wide revers strapped and stitched, turning back from the line of the bust to the shoulders, and tapering to a point at the waist. The fronts are shaped with single, very deep darts, and fit the figure snugly; but they are not fastened together. Pretty waistcoats of various kinds are worn with these jackets. The regular French vesting is much used, but there are smart little gilets of soft yellow yellow silk, trimmed with yellow ruching, and laid in fine lingerie tucks, those of red creped satin, striped with black velvet ribbon, and white silk and cloth models covered with straps edged with narrow gold braid and trimmed with rows of small buttons. The strappings lie perfectly flat and curve gracefully from the shoulders to the folded braid-edged belt.

ABBEY'S MEDICAL TALKS

are dangerous. They linger in the system; they weaken the constitution. They open a way for more serious sickness. High temperature, thirst, headache are some of the symptoms. Every movement causes the bones and muscles to ache, and even to lie down is painful. These are signs of danger and of worse to come. Drive out the cause by means of ABBEY'S EFFERVESCENT SALT. Bilious, Gastric, Remittant, Rheumatic, Malarial, Eruptive Fevers, are all due to a disordered condition of the blood, and can only be driven out through the blood. Doctors say the blood should be cooled first, and for this purpose Abbey's Salt has no equal. Doctors all over the world use it and testify as to its value in fever cases. Abbey's is so pleasant to take that children like it and the most delicate stomach will not refuse it.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 26.
I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.
Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhœa. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

RED HOT FROM THE GUN

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for twenty years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, felons, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

BRAVE MEN FALL

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changed weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25 cents per box. Sold by C. E. Holton.
